

REDDAM HOUSE SOMERSET

Reddam House Somerset extends its congratulations to the Matriculants of 2019 on their excellent results in their final examinations.

Thirteen full-time candidates were entered for the 2019 Independent Examinations Board (IEB) National Senior Certificate examination, in which they achieved as follows:

100% pass rate with 100% University (BD) pass
1 A aggregate and 6 B aggregates
18 subject As
70% (average student aggregate)
1st - Danielle van Rhyn (4 distinctions), 2nd - Clinton Elves (2 distinctions) and
3rd - Jane Daniels (2 distinctions)
Other noticeable achievements:
Hannah Britz – 3 distinctions
Crystal Beukes – 1 distinction
Jacqueline Ekermans – 1 distinction
Savannah Hooker – 1 distinction

Not only do we congratulate our top achievers, but also acknowledge those students who, together with the staff, worked with dedication to attain their personal best and who can be proud of some very fine results.

Reddam House Somerset students achieved group averages of 70% and above in the following subjects:

Accounting: 75.25%
Afrikaans (FAL): 70.89%
Business Studies: 74.12%
Dance Studies: 77.25%
Dramatic Arts: 79.25%
English (HL): 70.76%
French (SAL): 84.75%
Geography: 72.19%
History: 81.25%
Mathematical Literacy: 72.58%
Visual Arts: 79.92%

These results are a just reward for the students' hard work and also attest to the continued commitment to academic excellence of our motivated and inspirational staff. We thank them for their efforts in preparing the students so successfully for these examinations.

Congratulations to the Matric Class of 2019. We wish you futures filled with abundant success, inspiration, fulfilment and happiness.

Janine Tessendorf

JOIN OUR NEXT OPEN DAY
SATURDAY, 15 FEBRUARY | 9:00 - 11:00